

Cuckoo's Caesar Dressing

Yes!!... there are anchovies in our Caesar dressing!!...and fresh garlic, capers, lemon juice, fresh eggs and parmesan cheese... Ideal to give life to your romaine lettuce and extra zest to a plain side salad, our recipe is as traditional as it gets. Creamy and very flavourful, if kept sealed in your fridge, it will last you a long time. It gives an extra kick to your sandwiches and it's excellent as a dip for your veggie platters. Just remember it is not vegetarian or vegan.
